RAISIN BREAD ADS IN CHICAGO CARS

Committee Lets Contract for Six Months.

Advertising Company to Secure Ten Bakers to Bake
Raisin Bread Daily.

At a meeting of the Raisin Day committee at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon, the first step toward the advertisement of raisins throughout the East was taken when a contingent contract was made with the Street Railways Advertising Company of New York to place the placing of cards advertising raisin bread in Chicago street cars for a period of six months.

In return for the advertising given in, the advertising company agrees to secure at least ten of the leading bakery firms of Chicago to make raisin bread every day until the term of the contract expires. Unless this provision is fulfilled, the Raisin Day committee reserves the right to cancel the contract.

Arthur J. Hill, representing the New York company, presented the proposition to the committee yesterday afternoon, making a thorough explanation of it. When the matter was put to a vote it was passed unanimously.

The cost of this advertising will be $552.80 a month or $3316.80 for the six months. The Raisin Day committee has a little over $4000 in the treasury and thus enabled to advertise for this period of time.

Advertisements will not be placed in every street car in Chicago at the same time, but before the contract has expired, they will have been in every street car in the city at least three weeks. The advertising company will place the cards in not less than 1088 cars at a time and these cards will be changed every three weeks. It is estimated that over one million people will see the advertisements every day and before the six months has elapsed the two and a half million people residing in Chicago will have read many times of the raisin bread.

Word will be sent immediately to Chicago and a representative of the New York firm will go around among the leading bakers and secure their assent to the baking of raisin bread in connection with the advertisements. In addition to the placing of cards in the street cars, cards will be placed in hundreds of bakeries and grocery stores in Chicago, advertising raisin bread and it is believed in this way that there will be a large consumption of California raisins.

The first advertisements will appear either on the 1st or the 15th of December, and will continue until next June. In securing the leading bakery firms in Chicago, recipes for making good raisin bread will be given them, and if the bread is not good the whole thing will be a failure.

This feature of the campaign will be especially looked after by the Street Railways Advertising Company, that it may have something to show for the amount expended with it for advertising.

LOS ANGELES AFTER THAT BIG FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—Los Angeles may be expected to bid on the coming Jeffries-Johnson championship fight, according to Thomas J. McCarey, the local promoter. McCarey says when the articles between the two fighters are signed that he will be ready to submit a bid which he predicts will be more than for the principals than anything else that may be offered.

McCarey is working out a plan to induce 200 local men to pledge themselves to buy that number of tickets for the fight at $100 each. McCarey figures that there will be that many men from Jeffries' home city who will attend the fight wherever it may be held and who would spend probably more than $100 each if the fight were held in Los Angeles. He has many pledges already. McCarey states that with $20,000 assured from the best seats, and with a charge of $5 for gallery seats, that the gate receipts would easily approximate $100,000. He plans to hold the fight at the new, 15,000 seat amphitheater holding 15,000 would be built.

ENGLISH RACES. NEWMARKET, Oct. 26.—The Timehills stakes of 25 sovereigns each, with 500 sovereigns added, for 3-year-olds and upward, mile and a quarter, was run here today and was won by Berda. H. P. Whitney's Berda III was second. The plate of 150 sovereigns for 2 and 3-year-olds, distance last six furlongs of the Abingdon mile, was won by Gog.

"FRESNO FUEL CO. QUARTETTE"

Hear them sing:
Remember the shortage, the great fuel shortage.
Were you caught with an empty bin?
And did you shiver and did you shake
And shake and shiver within?

Did you or your little ones catch cold?
And the doctor said to run right?
Turned out to be a day too late.
TO-DAY is the day to buy.

Fight Gossip

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Jeffries had retired when word reached New York tonight that he had been offered $100,000 to fight the Jeffries-Johnson fight. It was not known at the hotel whether he had received the telegram. Needham is said to have sent Jeffries a slight opposition late today in which a specialist removed a growth in each nostril caused by a blow which he received in the Fitzsimmons fight. The operation was simple, but it cleared the nostrils so that his breathing is not interfered with.

The big fighter referred a third match tonight between Hal Childs and Mike Donlin. Donlin won.

H. M. Walker, sports editor of the Los Angeles Examiner, has the following to say about the scheduled Burns-Flynn bout at Los Angeles next Friday eve:

Sentiment is divided as to the outcome of the contest next Friday evening at Alvarado's motion picture theatre. Burns and Jack Burns, who were hard at Doyle's yesterday, going on the road in the morning and in the afternoon, appearing before a good sized crowd in the Southern Athletic Club arena, where the housed Jimmie Burns, using Ray Page, Louis Baks and Al Winter as sparring partners.

Burns, at Venice, hit the highway for seven miles, doing his regular work in the afternoon at the Arcadia gymnasium and evening at the Los Angeles gymnasium, using six rounds with the veteran Jimmie Burns. Burns showed much speed in his work, boxing equally well with either hand.

Doc Jeffery, the manager of Burns, predicts that Burns will end this bout with a knockout, for while the two do not hold Flynn cheaply they figure that Burns will be able to keep off the rushes of the Fireman and that Jack can get in those short-arm jolts which have played such havoc with the opponents of Burns and Flynn.

Frankie Harris and Billy Dougherty did some preliminary work in the gymnasium at Venice, though neither boxed. They will begin boxing this afternoon.

At the Naud pavilion Jimmy Brady, Dan Cullen and Kid Rice put in a telling work, while Al Rogers was doing his stunts at Redondo going ready for his bout with Brandy.

TO MATCH JOE WILLIS. A triple event for Tuesday evening, November 5th, which will be the next date after the Flynn-Burns contest at the pavilion. Joe Willis, who has just come down from San Francisco to join in the championship series of the heavyweights, will be matched with Jack Geyer at Jim Cameron as one of the contests on the program for that evening.

Willis declared yesterday that he was feeling in better shape than ever before and he believed that two weeks' training would put him on edge. He probably will use Doyle's camp for training quarters.

BARRY WANTS TO COME SACK. Jim Barry writes from Hot Springs, Ark., that he is going in grand shape at the Southern resort and will be glad to come back to Los Angeles in a month or more and go on with any heavyweight opponent the Pacific Athletic Club may select.

ISSUE CHALLENGE. The Fresno Referee football team, a new organization has issued a challenge to play any amateur team in the Valley of its own weight. The lineup of the team is a strong one. Address all communications to Leslie Knapp, Fresno.

TRIAL FOR MURDER BEGINS IN MERCED

A. Barsi Faces Jury for Dos
Palos Homicide.

Liquor Sold in Blind Pig
Cause of Quarrel Ending in Man's Death.

MERCED, Oct. 26.—The trial of A. Barsi, charged with the murder of E. Pachuti, in South Dos Palos, on the night of September 19th, this year, was called in the superior court of Merced today at 10 o'clock by Judge E. N. Recker. District Attorney H. S. Shaffer appears for the people, and Attorney L. J. Schino of this city, and Attorney Henry Brickley of Fresno, are representing the defendant. A special jury of 10 has been summoned by Elmer George Powell, who was yesterday appointed by the court to summon jurors for this case, the attorneys for the defense having objected to the sheriff's office jury. The jury was called on the ground that the members of the sheriff's forces were prejudiced and that they had assisted in securing the evidence against the accused.

On the night of September 19th, in the town of Dos Palos, A. Barsi and Pachuti, two Italian laborers on one of the Miller & Lux ranches were drinking together, and during no time engaged in a quarrel. Apparently, without warning, Barsi, it is alleged, whipped out a long knife and stabbed Pachuti seven times. This affair is alleged to have occurred in one of the "blind pigs" which were at that time running in South Dos Palos, there being no licensed saloons in that town. Barsi made his escape. Pachuti succeeded in getting to a room in one of the hotels, where a physician was called to dress his wounds. After lingering for several hours in great agony the wounded man died.

Sheriff Swan was notified early on the morning of the 20th and left with several deputies for the scene of the trouble. Barsi had made his escape from the town, but after a couple of hours' search, Sheriff Swan and Deputy Sheriff R. J. Shannon located him on a small ranch a few miles from South Dos Palos. When found Barsi was crouching behind a pile of grain bags and was quickly overpowered and brought to the county jail in Merced, where he has since remained.

As a result of that affair, Sheriff Swan arrested five men at South Dos Palos and charged them with selling liquors without a license. When their trials were called in Judge J. J. Griffith's court a few days later, all pleaded guilty and were fined $40 each, which they paid. It is understood that at this time there is no liquor being sold in South Dos Palos.

PIMLICO RESULTS

FAVORITES GATHER ON A SLOW TRACK

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26.—Favorites and outsiders divided the honors at Latonia today, three public choices winning and as many losing. Grenade, a heavily-played second choice, won the feature race.

In the fifth race, Huerfano ran away two and a half miles and was then left at the post.

The fair weather brought out the biggest crowd of the meeting. The track was slow. Results:

First race, five and one-half furlongs: Captain Glore, 6 to 1, won; Jack Bums, 7 to 2, second; Radiation, 10 to 1, third. Time 1:11 4-5.

Second race, mile and an eighth: Marie Alget, 6 to 5, won; Minot, 7 to 2, second; Waterline, 5 to 1, third. Time, 2:01 4-5.

Third race, five and one-half furlongs: Beau Grande, even, won; Belle Clem, 10 to 1, second; Duquesne, 7 to 1, third. Time 1:02 4-5.

Fourth race, six furlongs: Grenade, 4 to 1, won; Florence, 2 to 1, second; Plum, 7 to 2, third. Time, 1:17 4-5.

Fifth race, six furlongs: Dargis, 13 to 10, won; Tony Faust, 11 to 5, second; Kennmore Queen, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 3-5.

Sixth race, one mile: Flitting, 5 to 1, won; George Heckman, 8 to 5, second; Gold Treasure, 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:46 2-5.

FIRESTONE BEATS J. R. KEENE'S FILLY

AQUEDUCT, Oct. 26.—Firestone, an added starter and quarter, 2 to 1, won the Aqueduct Handicap here today, defeating J. R. Keene's grand filly Maskette. The Keene filly was at odds on, as Fitzhughbert was withdrawn, but Sun Hillside added Firestone at the last moment. Firestone, running true and game, gradually forged in the lead and won by half a length. Results:

First race, one mile—Black Ford, 6 to 5, won; Lady, 5 to 1, second; Aunt Jule, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:12.

Second race, seven furlongs—Hurricane, 5 to 5, won; King's Daughter, 16 to 5, second; Twilight Queen, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:28.

Third race, six furlongs—Sticker, 4 to 1, won; Fred, even, second; Bull Carr, 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:13 3-5.

Fourth race, mile and a sixteenth—Firestone, 8 to 1, won; Maskette, 1 to 4, second; Olambapala, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:42 2-5.

Fifth race, one mile—Arnes, 2 to 1, won; Queen Margaret, 5 to 1, second; Imbulator, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:42 2-5.

Sixth race, five furlongs—Condon, 5 to 1, won; Flying Footsteps, 5 to 1, second; Imprudent, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:02.

DIAMOND DUST

Pitcher Fred Beebe, of the Cardinals finished the season with a lame arm.

First Baseman Hoblitzel, of the Reds will attend the Ohio Dental college in Cincinnati all winter.

Curtis, Boston's sensational young pitcher, has been added to the All-Nationals for their California trip.

The season's strike-out record is sixteen, hux up by Nap Rucker, of Brooklyn. With St. Louis batters the victims.

With the exception of Mathewson, Catcher Gibson of Pittsburgh, classed Cunniff as the best pitcher in either league.

Pitcher Garmen's good work made such a hit with Manager Griffith that his salary was voluntarily raised during the season.

Pitcher Bob Spude failed to win a promised bonus for winning 50 per cent of his games by the narrow margin of one victory.

Manager Clark Griffith of Cincinnati earned a $1000 bonus, as provided in Griffith's contract, calls for a bonus if he landed the Reds in the first division.

What looks like the one best bet could be the minors this fall is Wheat, the outfielder Brooklyn secured from the South. He has made good from his first game.

President John A. Heydler, of the National league, will urge his organization to take some action this winter against the murderous apkes now used by some ball players.

IN THE LODGE ROOM.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD Professor Taylor was appointed the regular musician of Manzanita Camp, Woodmen of the World, at last night's session. Clerk George R. Andrews received a letter from Fremont Camp, Los Angeles, stating that the members of the Southern Camp, Los Angeles, after the health of Mr. Kuntz of Manzanita Camp, J. E. Hall was reported as having arrived last night to put on the mock trial on Tuesday evening, November 3, as the contest of characters has been chosen. The K. of P. hall will be the scene of the "trial" and no admission will be charged. All members are asked to bring their friends, families or sweethearts. It was decided to send the camp drill team to Portland.

The team will go after first prize and will assist in advertising Fresno by each member wearing a badge, the emblem of which will be a bunch of Fresno raisins. Some of the delegates to the grand session of the Women of Wonders took with them several boxes of raisins and the raisin fruit made quite a hit with the delegates, or with those who were fortunate enough to get them while they lasted.

RED MEN Pitahaya Tribe, No. 14, of the Redmen held its regular council fire last night in the wigwam at Odd Fellows' hall. The warriors and chiefs degree were conferred upon Brother S. M. Phillips. After the close of the lodge business, a short social session was enjoyed. Improvised music was furnished by the band. Refreshments were served. All tribesmen in these hunting grounds are especially requested to take notice that on next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock the annual memorial services in memory of the departed brothers of the tribe will be held in the wigwam. The tribe will be joined in the exercises by Navajo Council and the Degree of Pochontas. The address will be delivered by the Rev. Duncan Wallace. All members and their friends are earnestly requested to attend.

MONTE ATTELL WINE FROM JIM CARROLL

OAKLAND, Oct. 26.—Monte Attell was given the decision over Jimmy Carroll in a ten round fight here this evening. Attell won all the way and in the fifth the best saved Carroll, who had been knocked down from a knock-out. Percy Cove easily defeated Al Emmick in a six round preliminary.

Carroll's work against the little fellow gained the cheers of the crowd. He was sent to the mat with a well directed right to the jaw, but came back gamely in the sixth and managed, through clever footwork, to evade Attell's rushes through cleverly blocking his leads throughout the rest of the bout.

Corsets of the Winter

The New Models Combine a Fashionable Cut With Unusual Comfort --- Moyen Age Lines

NEW CORSET WITH BUST SUPPORTER WHICH WILL PROVE TO BE POPULAR.

LACED IN FRONT MODEL.

A SIMPLE AND SENSIBLE CORSET NOVELTY IN SILK JERSEY WEBBING.

THAT whaleboneless thing a corset? I heard one woman ask another as they stood before a shop window in upper Fifth avenue where new corset models were on exhibition. "Yes, dear," came the dulcet reply, "the very latest scream—a tiny made of silk jersey, which fits the figure snugly and is so comfortable you don't realize you have it on." "Well, I'm pleased to meet it for I haven't sat down with a minute's real peace since the extra long corsets came in," said the inquirer.

After the above conversation I entered the shop and was told by an unusually gracious saleswoman that the exhibit represented the newest corsets just received from Paris, which models are reproduced for your benefit in the illustrations. The gown has made the corset and is still making it, for the new examples are designed for middle age fashions. It just happens that all of the moyen age dresses and frocks with these lines demand the reformer that takes a woman's figure back to the makeup of the original Mother Eve.

In these sweet models the corsetless has retained the long straight appearance by taking the decided curve out of the side and bust gorges, and he has made a lower bust, which gives the wearer room to breathe and develop her lungs and a space in which to move and to keep her digestion in good order. One of the very low bust corsets has a bust supporter of tricot. Though the boning extends but a few inches over the hips, the material is sufficiently firm to hold the figure taut, by which the aid of the bust supporters. And uprose of these supporters, the corset of the winter requires a distressing number of garters since the long sides and back must not be allowed to wrinkle or slip up the bones which hold the upper part smooth and at a reasonable depth. Four sets of garters are put upon many of the corsets, and in spite of patent clasp hawks have been wrought on the stocking tops, to which the corset is strapped down. Especially in silk stockings, as every woman knows to her discomfort, the ravages have been appalling, and to meet the situation manufacturers have brought out new silk stockings with deep garter tops made of stout cotton. A woman I know in her silk stockings runs little strips of soft satin ribbon down from the tops for a few inches at the points where the garters clasp, and the saving by this means has been great.

These fashionable new corsets have few bones, and they are wonderfully comfortable things to wear. The modern woman does not expect her corset to reduce her hips to the vanishing point; she knows full well that this is only accomplished by exercise, massage, diet, etc., although the perfect fluting stay does make the most of a reasonably good figure. To sum up the Parisian models—which, by the way, are not so remarkably different from the corsets we have been wearing all summer—one might say that the bust line is lower, the bones cut to a reasonable length, although the material continues long over the hips, and the line in front from the waist is shortened, which admits of comfortable sitting. In connection with corset boning it is interesting to note that Catherine de Medici was the first person to wear ivory corset sticks and that at a little later period corset makers began to substitute bone for ivory. It was, I believe, in the reign of Louis XIII. that whalebone for this purpose was introduced. Indeed, the origin of the corset has been open to much debate. Some historians have dated it from the little waistbands of the Egyptians and Greeks, and there are others who affirm that the corset was never heard of until the middle ages. It was then known by the name of justaucorps, and later it was called surcoat and corselet. At that time it was a stiff contrivance that laced front and back, this last form being introduced by Isobel of Bavaria. An improvement on this corset invention is to be observed in the new Margarine Lacroix laced in front corset developed in a lightweight batiste. In this model steels are few in number and are light and flexible, making the garment less cumbersome and the wearer's figure more supple.

NEW YORK. CATHERINE TALBOT.

PARIS GOWNS IN GONDOLA. A woman's league has been founded in Venice for the purpose of introducing once more the fashions of the renaissance period. Signora Rosa Geronzi, the novelist, who is at the head of the movement, was made of a stiff straw or felt—trying to the severe type, but becoming enough to a certain face with curling locks.

Now, the terms toque and turban are used this year interchangeably and cover a whole range of hats descended from the Hindoo turban. Their shape is legion, and it would be out of the question to so describe each separate hat as to place it in the list of toques or of turbans.

This new headgear will undoubtedly be a favorite with the veiled lady and the autumn shopper, because it is comparatively close.

The Hindoo turban is a swathed hat, made on a frame covered with such soft materials as velvet, piece beaver, the richest ottoman silk and other soft silks and chiffons. The bordering to the crown of the turban is placed in a usually of something heavier. For instance, the chiffon draperies may be bound in by velvet bands, but the velvet or beaver top will be held in by a border of fur.

The crown is not always a twisted drapery, but sometimes is more of a crust of silk resembling the old time toque. The finish of the two hats near the head is identical.

TOQUE VERSUS TURBAN. We shall not doubt hear of the toque and the turban from the present moment up to the first blast of winter, and those of us who make our own headgear will keep on wondering just what is meant—firstly, by such a vague term as "toque" and just wherein lies the difference between it and the turban.

TOQUE HAS MEANT to us for long years a small crush hat made of some soft material mounted on a wire frame and fitted closely to the head—a very small affair.

Our well known turban had an upturned hilt several inches high and

True Badge of Blue Blood

Ability and Disposition to Do Any Kind of Work When Necessity Blows the Bugle Indicate Character.

TO be aristocratic is all very well, my friends, and being somewhat of a snob myself, I have sympathy with the class. But remember this—the true badge of blue blood is to be able to do any class of work when it is necessary.

I have just received a visit from a woman who is very hard up, indeed, but instead of getting busy at any old job that will bring her the necessities of life she is living at the expense of a little woman much better born than she is, by the way, who fortunately is enough of a thoroughbred to work for both.

Sometimes I get out of patience with women who have only too little money and yet haven't the nerve and pluck to reduce their expenses and get down to any kind of work that precedes the golden chance that is worthy of them (at least so they think).

It is the women who have the least money who spend it the most recklessly, which accounts for their being as dead broke as they are half the time.

Take the subject of the cleaner's bill, for example. Have you any idea how many things there are that will wash?

An Essay on Lane Cleaning, Etc.

The average woman never finds out because she never takes the trouble to investigate. It is all right to patronize the dry cleaners if you have the money, but if you haven't you had better pick out articles of dress that will stand a good scrubbing with soap and water. Fortunately there are many of these.

For instance, a heavy lace waist, lined with point d'esprit or brussels net, will launder beautifully, but the same thing lined with chiffon means a perpetual cleaner's bill. Of course there are very fine and dainty waists that have to be made over and have to be dry cleaned, but these are not for the woman of small means. Then there are many varieties of woolen goods that wash far better than they clean. Among these are black and white checks, white serges and even some grades of white broadcloth.

A white, unlined broadcloth cape of good quality can be laundered over and over again, and a friend of mine has a black and white wool checked dress, also unlined, that she puts regularly in the tub.

On the other hand, when a garment needs cleaning I do not believe in the homestead naphtha operation. I am sorry to say it is apt to be decidedly dry cleaning is not an operation in which the average woman excels, and she had better leave it to those who make of it a profession. The woman who economizes, at any rate, should do so sensibly. Too many women, alas, are penny wise and pound foolish.

HALLOWEEN GAMES.

What Happens When the Prince of Darkness Presides at the Party.

A Halloween celebration at which the Prince of Darkness personally presides can be made very effective. The invitations should be written in red on black paper, and the guests should be asked to wear masks.

The hostess should be dressed as a witch in black, with peaked hat and broom, and Satan wears red, with a red mask. There are also various subsidiary friends (small brothers and sisters) dressed in black, with rope tails, painted caps and roasting forks at the ends of sticks.

A room can be arranged as hades, or the basement can be used for the purpose, in which case the furnace door can be thrown open at intervals with great effect. A throne of boxes draped in black is erected in the center of hades, and on it Satan sits, with a book of record in his lap. A dictionary serves the purpose excellently.

At the appointed time the hostess swings open the gates of hades or conducts the guests by a circuitous route to the basement. Two fiends rush forward, seize a guest and begin to prod him with their forks. Chains clank, groans are heard, and the victims are led to the foot of the throne.

Here is where most of the fun comes in, for Satan knows or has been primed with all the interesting facts in the history of each guest. In a hollow voice he reads long lists of sins from the dictionary, and all the time the fiends are "torturing" the victim. As soon as one is sentenced to toothache, malaria, unrequited love or headache the presence of tartar upon the teeth is a source of annoyance to a great many people. It is not only unsightly, but causes the teeth to ache. This tartar can be removed easily without the aid of a dentist. Purchase a small piece of magnesia, wet the toothbrush in warm water, dip it into the magnesia and rub the teeth upon which the tartar has collected.

The value of carbonate of soda as a preservative of the teeth cannot be too highly prized. If a pinch of it is added to the water in which the teeth are cleaned night and morning the benefit derived will soon be realized. A good plan is to dissolve a teaspoonful of the soda in a tumbler of water, dip into this a coarse cotton or silk thread and pass it up and down between the teeth to remove any particles of food which may have gathered in the crevices.

Too great care cannot be exercised in the choice of tooth powder, and anything which professes to whiten the teeth may destroy the enamel and thus do irreparable harm. Once in six weeks it is a good plan to brush the teeth lightly with finely powdered pumice stone.

The first sign of decay a dentist should be consulted and the cavity filled, for neglect to do this must result in the loss of the tooth eventually, and, although the modern art of dentistry is now so perfect that false teeth can be prepared to look exactly like one's own, they can never be really quite the same.

Once mature years have been reached nothing can be done for the shape of the teeth or toward regulating their position, but those who have the care of children should see that these matters are promptly attended to by a good dentist, for much of the pain and discomfort which people experience through them could have been prevented by a little attention in childhood.

While I am on the subject of teeth I would like to say a word about lips. Pale, colorless lips are by no means beautiful. Generally they are caused by ill health or a poor circulation. A little gentle friction with a rough Turkish towel will do much to improve them.

DAPHNE DEAN.

They think they are saving, but in reality spend more money than their most extravagant sisters.

One woman of my acquaintance thought it was extravagant to have an account in a bank where they draw checks, and yet she spent more than her interest from the savings bank because she had to make so many trips there. Another kept her old clothes for an indefinite period, finding them over and over again, and yet she bought no new ones, and yet she spent enough for new gowns many times over in the old gowns she fixed.

Another woman trimmed her own hats, but she quickly grew tired of them because they didn't look right. The result was her closets were filled with hats, not one of them being smart looking. But the total cost of this millinery would have certainly paid for one excellent model.

Many women consider that honest things must be practical and for this reason always buy the ugliest and heaviest of materials. Their economy is the easiest to show up, but it is usually exercised on children and dependents, so one does not have a chance to hear many complaints, and as soon as these people are emancipated they fly to the other extreme and comfort themselves.

Good Judgment Means Economy.

Economy means simply good judgment, the power to decide between two things when one has not the money for both. When well practiced it means a thorough training for the mind and the taste; when badly executed it is the most foolish thing on earth.

The woman who persists in speaking the truth and in having "set" ideas will never proceed very far socially. Society is not a lecture platform or a reform club, and people who want every one to think as they think had far better live alone, where they will suffer no opposition.

People with convictions may be and doubtless are the salt of the earth, but in ordinary, everyday communication with their fellow beings they are impossible. They judge people by the most exalted standards, and when these individuals fall short the person with convictions has no earthly use for them. Some one has to give in and be elastic in this world or we should be a lot of perfectly hateful people. It strikes me that the woman who has no particular views to offend anybody and who can smile and joke about everything makes the biggest bit of every-

MRS. O. H. P. BELMONT, SUFFRAGIST.

Leading Spirit in the New Political Equality Association.

Through the financial aid of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, who is taking an active interest in the suffragist cause, the new Political Equality Association has been whispers that a social complication has arisen. Perhaps Mrs. Mackay has seen a new light and may now oppose equal suffrage, or she may not approve of the methods of Mrs. Belmont. Her rival, if there be any existing rivalry between these very prominent women, must admire the zeal of Mrs. Belmont, who rises at 5 in the morning in order to discharge her serious work before beginning the social routine of the day. That Mrs. Belmont's day is pretty well filled out has only to know that she is overseeing the building of a town house and family manse and the erection of a series of small hospitals on Long Island.

FOR THE HOUSEWIFE.

A woman who is a famous housekeeper has hit upon a clever plan to save her napkins from fruit stains. She purchases plain white paper napkins with scalloped edges and has them on the table whenever fruit is served. Her family and guests alike are requested to use them instead of the fine napkins, for every housewife knows only too well how badly fruit stains them and how hard it is to remove the stains.

recently gone into very large and luxurious business quarters on the seventeenth story of a Fifth avenue office building in New York city.

Mrs. Belmont holds no office in the organization, but from her own office, which, by the way, is the smallest in the suit of rooms, she expects to direct the work of the society. Although a very convincing speaker on the subject of votes for women, Mrs. Belmont is understood, will not make any public speeches in favor of the franchise. Her rival in the suffrage work is Mrs. Clarence Mackay, who seems to have lost much of her enthusiasm as a suffragette. She is silent now, where a few months ago she was freely expressing herself in favor of votes for women. Mrs. Belmont now stands in the limelight, where Mrs. Mackay stood only a short time ago, and there have been whispers that a social complication has arisen. Perhaps Mrs. Mackay has seen a new light and may now oppose equal suffrage, or she may not approve of the methods of Mrs. Belmont. HALLOWEEN CAKE.

The spook cake is merely a large angel food cake baked in a loaf pan with a cylinder in the middle. After the cake is iced with white icing (made with pulverized sugar and water) the edge is outlined with one inch candles cut from a medium sized candle. Each guest is given a slice of cake containing a horseshoe, and, of course, it is supposed to be a true delineation of the future. Heat the end of the candle to make the wax run, then stick it in the icing. The wax will hold the short candle and horseshoe in place.

FOR SUNDAY LUNCHEON.

A delicious luncheon course for Sunday, when the man of the family has to be coaxed into thinking home is the best place after all, is a small chicken en casserole, with peas and carrots. Each casserole is first rubbed with garlic, which gives a delicious, indelible flavor to the whole.

WALNUT WAFERS.

Half pound of brown sugar, three pound of walnut meats broken, half even teaspoonful of flour, scant half teaspoonful soda, scant teaspoonful cream of tartar, pinch of salt and two eggs. Beat the eggs, add the sugar, salt, flour (in which have been sifted the soda and cream of tartar) and lastly walnut meats. Drop small spoonfuls on buttered pans and bake until brown. Remove from pan as soon as baked.

BAKED PEACH PUDDING.

Put enough pared whole peaches into a deep baking dish to nearly fill it. Roll out a rich baking powder biscuit dough three-quarters of an inch thick and cut to fit the top of the dish. Set on top of the range and cover closely. Cook moderately until the fruit is soft and the crust cooked light by the steam. Do not raise the cover for three-quarters of an hour before testing. Cut a trench in the middle of the crust and pour in a syrup made from one cup of sugar, one-half cup of boiling water and a rounding tablespoonful of butter heated together. Set in the oven to brown.

WHEN COOKING CHICKENS.

The best way to cook chickens, whether young or old, is to brown them first by broiling, frying or basting and then cook them in a covered pan in the oven, the time of the latter cooking to be regulated according to the age of the chicken.

JUST GATHERED UP.

A girl recently returned from a series of visits asked not to be questioned as to how much she enjoyed it, as she had been living in the divorce zone. "In every family in those places, and I went to five colonies," she said, "there had been a divorce, and the one topic was the heart hunger that had made one or the other seek fresh fields. I could not quite understand why any woman should be hungry for love and sympathy when endowed with a decent husband and children or why it was always the most eligible bachelor that was hungrier for."

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt grows more and more impatient with mere men. When she first took up the cause, she was lenient, but she has progressed steadily until at present it seems she is unmerciful. A woman to whom she was talking suffrage recently expressed little interest in the argument, and her indifference afterward was explained by Mrs. Catt as follows: "The trouble with Mrs. Black is that she fairly worships her husband. She thinks he is absolutely perfect. Why, the woman really believes the parrot taught him to swear."

Women who are deft with their hands can make all manner of trifles for the house out of tissue paper. Among the serviceable articles thus made are table mats to slip under hot dishes. They are composed of strips of tissue paper braided, like the old fashioned braided mats. A piece of cardboard is the foundation. Glove and handkerchief cases, sachets and many other things for the dressing table are made of flowered tissue paper and are very pretty.

The chamomile treatment is the latest thing for the complexion and is said to produce the pearl like pallor which is model just now. The skin is massaged gently with a cleansing food; then while moist it is rubbed with a strip of the chamomile which has been wet with warm water, covered with a layer of some pure kind of soap and then allowed to dry. When dry it is soft and fine and very good for the skin, says a beauty specialist.

FRENCH EVENING FROCKS.

These frocks are French creations from the house of Dreou, and they show the smart lines that are followed by the up to date evening costume of the season. Soft satin is the material used in both models, and the trimmings are of Egyptian design.

TWO HUNDRED SHARES OF AUDITORIUM STOCK TAKEN

Holland and Holland Start Ball Rolling In Canvass For Funds--Merchants Becoming Enthused Over the Proposition

"The greatest advertising medium in Denver and the most valuable asset to the people is generally admitted to be the auditorium." -- Denver Municipal Facts.

To start the ball rolling in the movement inaugurated by George R. Andrews for a convention hall in Fresno, W. B. Holland and H. H. Holland, members of the firm of Holland and Holland, merchants, yesterday affixed their names to the subscription list now being circulated throughout the city for two hundred shares. These at the par value of $10 per share will be $2000 toward the proposed auditorium. Holland and Holland were among the first merchants approached with the subscription list. They readily signed, expressing their willingness to do their share of the task in giving Fresno something she has long needed. George R. Andrews was about the city all day with the list. He met with gratifying success, considering that it was his first day of canvass for support.

W. B. HOLLAND

"In almost every instance," said Mr. Andrews last night, "I met with encouragement from the merchants. All seem willing to boost the proposition and declare that they will assist all they can. A few seemed a little backward about subscribing for stock in the company, but I think every shoulder will be behind the movement in a short time. Many do not realize the importance of the project--the benefit to be derived from such a building. It is a movement that should not be dropped, now that it is fairly well started and I hope to secure the co-operation of every business man here for many days. Then we will rush matters. As soon as several hundred shares have been sold, it is likely that a meeting will be called for the purpose of electing officers. A president, secretary and treasurer must be chosen by the stockholders and then I think we can see our way clear to push the proposition through without the least effort."

It is encouraging that one of the largest firms in the city has started the ball rolling, and the task of securing the much-needed funds should be made lighter for Mr. Andrews from now on. He has worked diligently to push the movement as far as it has gone, but he expresses a desire to continue the work with more vim than ever. In subscribing to the fund, Holland and Holland figure that the convention hall will benefit the city as well as themselves. The merchants own property in the same block as the proposed site for the convention hall and in subscribing many would think that the firm is playing into its own hands. However, it is stated that the Hollands intend to build on their property within a short time, which will benefit the auditorium as well as their own location. Both buildings would be equally benefited.

PURPOSE SET FORTH.

The proposed incorporated company will be of $100,000 capital stock; ten thousand shares at $10 each. The purpose, as set forth in the subscription list, follows:

Believing that a convention hall of sufficient capacity to accommodate large conventions and other gatherings is one of the urgent needs of Fresno city and county and that the city and county have been greatly handicapped in the future until such a building is provided, we desire to show our earnestness in the matter and do hereby each severally agree with the others herein contained, and of the subscription hereto, of the others, that we will subscribe for and will take and pay for the number of shares set opposite his signature in a corporation to be organized for the erection of such a building at the corner of Fresno and L streets in the city of Fresno. Thirty-five per cent of each subscription to be due and payable as soon as the full $100,000 shall have been subscribed, or a two-thirds majority of the subscribers should decide by vote to proceed with less capitalization. The balance to be paid on call of the directors, only as fast as it may be required as the building progresses and this money is needed.

Each and every share of the stock subscribed shall be entitled to one vote in all matters pertaining to the corporation--a full vote. The necessary officers to be elected by the subscribers as soon as the necessary capital stock is subscribed.

To further encourage those behind the convention hall movement, the Republican this morning prints a subscription blank, which may be filled out and mailed to the Republican office by direct to George R. Andrews, Room 14, First National Bank Building, Fresno. It is thought that many can be reached in this manner who would otherwise not come in touch with Mr. Andrews or the business men assisting him.

I hereby subscribe for _____ shares at $10 per share of the capital stock of the Fresno Auditorium Company and agree to pay for same as the funds are called for by the Board of Directors.

GIFFEN & CO. BUY TWO-CENT RAISINS PREPARING FOR FARMERS' MEETING

Take in 1000 Tons; Want State Convention in Fresno, November 8-11.

Heavy Buying Causes Speculation in Raisin Circles. Giffen Denies Rumors.

Mass Meeting Called for Saturday to Complete Arrangements.

"We have bought 1000 tons of raisins at two cents a pound and are at the market for 500 tons more," said L. E. Giffen yesterday, thus confirming the report current the preceding day that two cents was being freely paid for raisins.

When it became known yesterday that the Giffen company was buying at this figure speculation immediately became rife that other interests were behind the firm. The Consolidated packers were under agreement not to buy, but to await the result of the two-cent string offer. This, as pointed out yesterday, affected the market generally. The Consolidated bunch stole a march on the others--not unheard of in the packing game.

Others explained that a "dummy" was necessary, for if one of the large packers had offered two cents for raisins it would cause an upward tendency in the market.

Mr. Giffen positively denied these speculations. He stated that his firm was buying the raisins for itself, because of the Eastern demand and the fact that trade conditions justified a two-cent price. He did not think the Consolidated packers would go higher; in fact, he did not consider them in the field for raisins, as some members of the Consolidated had sent grocers to him to sell their raisins. Giffen, who uses the Converter patent, said he had an important advantage over the Consolidated, who had to pay one cent royalty, while he paid only $2.50 a ton. To be sure, he had the expense of litigation to meet, but he explained that "we don't count that."

Giffen & Co. is operating a plant here owned at Fowler, and the California Seeded Raisin company is also doing seedling for the firm.

That there will be something doing in raisin circles within the next few days, is freely predicted. One packer yesterday declared that there was less than 10,000 tons of this year's crop available for purchase at the present time. It is regarded as significant, too, that several of the packers were in town yesterday from their San Francisco offices, and if the Consolidated bunch conclude that there is treachery in camp, there will be a general breaking out of the coral, and a lively skirmish for the remainder of the crop. Whatever the result, there is no longer any danger of a large carry-over of this year's raisins into next year and the tone of the market is bound to get stronger from now on.

When the members of the Farmers' Union convene in Fresno from November 8 to 11, it will be the first state convention of the organization. Accordingly, the local Farmers' Union is doing its utmost to make the three-day session a memorable one. A county convention has been called to meet in this city next Saturday. The members will confer in Union Hall on K street at 10 a. m. and committees on entertainment, arrangements and other important matters will be selected.

Fresno will have as its guests the national officers of the Union, C. S. Harrell of Union City, Georgia, national president of the Farmers' Union, R. H. McLaughlin of Texas, national secretary, and L. A. Morris of Sulligent, Alabama. Members of the national executive committee, will be among the distinguished visitors.

At a meeting held a few days ago by the local union, a committee consisting of Messrs. Ede, chairman, Ingram, Cook, Wrightson, Martin, Welch and Tibbs was appointed to complete arrangements for the coming of the delegates.

State Organizer W. W. Welch stated yesterday that a public meeting, a session at which the general public will be invited to attend, will be held. Arrangements are to be made for special rates on all railroads. These rates will of course, be in effect all over the state. At least one thousand farmers from Imperial Valley, Modesto, Tulare and other sections of California are expected. Local unions in Imperial Valley, Modesto and Tulare districts are along.

President Barrett is a man of high standing in union circles and his visit will be one of interest. Recently, the national leader made three successful trips to Manchester, England for the purpose of bettering the cotton industry in the South. This he has succeeded in doing. During his stay here, Mr. Barrett will endeavor to diagnose the fruit situation of California. He will ascertain if possible if the Farmers' organization can be instrumental in bettering present conditions and devising means of handling the crop without trouble.

FRUIT AGENCY BUYS WAREHOUSE SITE

Secures White Estate Block on Santa Fe.

Will Erect Largest Building of Kind in City for Storage Purposes.

A deal was made yesterday, whereby the California Fruit Agency acquires by purchase the block bounded by Ventura, Mono, P street and the Santa Fe, all except the three lots on the corner where the Traction Company has its car barns.

The property was purchased as a site for a mammoth warehouse to be used by the agency. It is just across the street from its present packing house and the new warehouse and house and the new packing plant will be connected either by an overhead or underground passage way.

The property was bought from the J. L. White estate. The consideration is not given out, but on account of the desirability of the site for factory or warehouse purposes, the price is known to have been a stiff one.

Plans are being made to build as soon as possible. It has not yet been decided whether the building will be of brick or reinforced concrete, but it is intended to make it the largest in the city.

H. V. Rudy and Willis Pike of the Fruit Exchange sold yesterday that the move was absolutely necessary because of the expanding business of the agency, and efforts are now being made to secure more temporary room for immediate requirements.

NEW TRAIN PUT ON FOR PORTERVILLE

From the Los Angeles offices of the Southern Pacific Company comes the news that train No. 7 for San Francisco via Bakersfield, which has heretofore left Los Angeles at 11:50 p. m. will leave the southern city at 9 p. m. and will run via Porterville. Through sleepers are to be provided to San Francisco via Porterville and also via Tulare, the latter's Pullman berth being on train No. 83, which starts from Bakersfield. The purpose of the change is to give Porterville and Tulare better service at night.

RAISIN COMPANY IN HOPEFUL MOOD

Directors Believe Raisins Will Sell for 3 1-2c.

Executive Committee Appointed and Officers Are Elected.

If 65 per cent of the acreage can be secured and the organization becomes effective, the directors of the Central California Raisin company, in a resolution passed at their meeting yesterday afternoon, expressed the opinion that raisins will sell for at least 3 1/2 cents a pound.

The directors of the new corporation held an all day meeting yesterday and in addition to the passing of this resolution, elected an executive committee, two vice-presidents and a secretary. Those voting were: Messrs. J. H. Haggard, president, and J. H. Haggard, secretary. The two members chosen to serve on the committee of five appointed as a result of the meeting to devise ways and means for handling this year's crop. The two members chosen yesterday were Lucius F. Haggard of Centerville and Patrick Talent of Hanford. This committee is now completing the remaining three members being A. L. Sayre, R. Friselle and Frank Wilson of Dinuba.

The meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon was devoted mainly to a discussion of ways and means for handling the next crop. How to buy and how to place it in the markets. Although the discussion was a long one, all of the directors taking part, nothing definite was accomplished.

A large acreage was signed up at the new office of the corporation, 945 L street, opposite the Hughes hotel, yesterday, and President Giffen stated last night that the contracts were coming in very rapidly. He feels assured that the directors will have no trouble whatever in raising up the 65 per cent necessary to make a permanent organization effective. In the campaign which will be carried on for members, it was stated yesterday that after a fair acreage had been signed up, a general house-to-house canvass will be held and following this the valley will be divided into districts and meetings held in each district. If the necessary percentage is not secured by this time, a house to house canvass will be held.

Prospects for the success of the corporation are exceedingly bright here, and it is generally believed that there will be no trouble in securing a sufficient acreage.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HAS THREE CALLS

Four Small Barns Are Burned to Ground.

One Horse Loses Life in Afternoon Blaze; Misleading Alarm Turned in.

The fire department had a very busy day yesterday, three alarms being turned in. None of the fires proved to be of a very serious nature, however, although in two of them four barns were consumed and one horse was burned.

The first alarm yesterday morning called the department to 1847 Mariposa street, where a defective flue was causing a great deal of smoke in the Royal lodging house. The flames were extinguished without damage.

The second alarm was turned in from box 9, at 7:15 in the afternoon. The fire proved to be a small barn owned by Mrs. M. A. Vreelien and occupied by T. Johnson. The barn was destroyed, entailing a loss of about $100 and a valuable show horse worth $300 in the neighborhood of $300 was burned to death.

The last alarm, turned in at 9:30 last night, was for a fire in the alley between P and G and Monterey and Los Angeles streets, where three small barns belonging to Rasmussen were burned, entailing a loss of about $400.

The department was delayed in getting to the scene because of the fact that the alarm was turned in from the box at the corner of I and J streets, evidently by some one who had seen the blaze at that place. Engine Company No. 2, hearing the alarm from box 17, did not respond although the fire proved to be in its district. The alarm was outside of this district, but the boys at No. 3 did not see the blaze and so did not go out.
